

EVER SEE A HOUSE FLY?

You'll see millions of 'em soon. Put the Wheeler Screen on for free trial, as below, and fool 'em. During the trial watch the Wheeler win its way, upstairs and down, on crooked, straight, swollen and shrunken windows, under the daily duties of washing glass, cleaning sills, shaking out dust rags, etc.

TEN-DAY FREE TRIAL.

On any or every window you wish to screen. No matter what you thought to buy, or what you thought to pay, first use the Wheeler 10 days free, and learn all that a screen must do to satisfy year after year. Off they come after the trial if they fall in any way.

H. B. SUDLOW DEAD

Well Known Citizen and Railroad Man Breathes His Last.

SEVERAL YEARS' ILLNESS

Was For a Long Time the Superintendent of the Old R. I. & P. Road.

Henry B. Sudlow died last evening at 10:15 o'clock at his home, 832 Twenty-third street. Mr. Sudlow has been failing for a number of years, and in 1896 resigned his position as superintendent of the Rock Island & Peoria railway on account of poor health. He continued as treasurer of the coal valley mining company, and held the office of treasurer up to the time of his death. He had been failing rapidly during the last year, and about two weeks ago was compelled to take to his bed. Mr. Sudlow was 67 years of age, having been born Feb. 10, 1838, in Hocking county, Ohio.

Long Business Career.

His life was that of a long business career. In 1856 he came to Davenport, and engaged in mercantile business in that city. At the close of the civil war, in which he enlisted and rose to the rank of lieutenant, he again engaged in business in Davenport, connecting himself with various enterprises. In 1882 he became identified with the Rock Island & Peoria railway. Previous to that he was connected with the Coal Valley Mining company, of which he was one of the promoters and large stockholders. He was for two years assistant to R. R. Gable, when Mr. Cable was superintendent of the Rock Island & Peoria and in 1884 he succeeded Mr. Cable to the office of superintendent.

As Railroad Man.

For 14 years the management of the road, both the finances and the operating department, were under his personal supervision, and the same was true of the Coal Valley Mining company. Under his direction the railway property became one of the best in the state, and it was through his diligent work in the interests of the road that his health was shattered. In 1895 he sought to retire from the superintendency, but after an extended southern trip he was improved to such an extent that he continued with the company until March 15, 1896. He had in addition to the duties of the superintendency, been secretary and treasurer of the railway, and on retiring from the superintendency continued for several years in the office of secretary and treasurer.

On the occasion of his retirement from the active management of the Rock Island & Peoria, Mr. Sudlow was made the recipient of a beautiful diamond ring from his fellow officers of the road, as a token of the high esteem in which he was held. This memento was one of his cherished possessions.

The management of the railway, on Mr. Sudlow's retirement, was assumed by H. S. Cable, while H. P. Greenough, now with the Rock Island at Cedar Rapids, was promoted from the office of chief train dispatcher to the superintendency, and they continued in these capacities until the Rock Island took over the property.

In the Service of His Country. Mr. Sudlow enlisted in the 2nd Iowa Cavalry, at Davenport, in 1861, as a private. Shortly after enlisting he was made quartermaster sergeant of the company, and February 6, 1864, was commissioned regimental quartermaster, with the rank of second lieutenant. He held this rank until the regiment was mustered out, Sept. 9, 1865.

Mr. Sudlow and Miss Mary L. Cable were married in Davenport, Jan. 14, 1868. Besides his wife he leaves one son, George E. Sudlow, of Miles City, Mont. Two other children died in infancy, and a daughter died about 12 years ago. A brother, H. L. Sudlow, resides at Newton, Iowa, and three sisters, Miss Phoebe Sudlow, Miss Lucy Sudlow, and Mrs. Henry Egbert, live in Davenport.

The funeral services will be held from the home, Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. W. S. Marquis, D. D., will conduct the services. Service at the cemetery will be private. Interment will be at Oakdale cemetery, Davenport.

Mr. Sudlow was a man of sterling character, dignified in his nature, yet always cordial to all he met. He was staunch in his friendships and was best beloved by those who best knew him. He was devoted to his family, and in fact never entirely recovered from the blow of the loss of his daughter whose death in Rock river several years ago cast a gloom over the entire community.

Mans.

Manson Mrs. 525 Seventh street, died yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the home, of apoplexy. He suffered a stroke last Tuesday, and since that time the attending physician had little hope of his recovery. He had been ailing for about three months. Mr. Manson had made his home in this city during the last year, with his sister, Mrs. Nettie McDonald. He was 53 years of age, and was born near South Bend, Ind., on a farm.

Besides his sister, Mrs. McDonald, he leaves two brothers, Orph. and Stuart Manson, residing at Cassie, Ind., and

ANOTHER VICTIM IN ROCK RIVER

Daniel Walker, who resided about four miles south of Milan, was drowned this afternoon at about 1 o'clock in the vicinity of the steel dam in Rock river. He was in bathing with a number of boys when the accident happened. The alarm was given and an effort was made to find the body. Men are dragging there this afternoon, but at 3 o'clock the remains had not yet been found.

This drowning was in about the same place that the one occurred last year, and where there have been other victims of treacherous waters. The information as to just how it happened has not reached the city.

Two sisters, Mrs. Nellie Dunaway, of this city, and Mrs. Rose Evans, of Warner Crossing. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

TO RETURN SOON

Students of Augustana College Come for Opening Sept. 5.

BUILDINGS PUT IN SHAPE

Several New Teachers Take Up Work at Institution This Year—Andreen at Chautauqua.

Students will be returning to Augustana college within a few weeks, as the fall term opens Sept. 5. Preparations are being made to put the buildings and grounds in shape for the opening of the year's work. Many of the faculty members have been away during the vacation period this summer.

Dr. Lindberg has been visiting friends in New York City; Dr. Youngert has been staying in Iowa; Prof. Williamson has attended a soldiers' reunion in the state of Washington; Prof. Esbjorn has made trips to Minnesota and Arkansas; Dr. Udden is doing geological work in Texas; Prof. Cederberg is on his way to the university in Göttingen, Germany, where he expects to spend a year or two in special work; Prof. Anderson has been traveling in the northern part of Illinois in the interest of Augustana college; Mrs. Edla Lund has visited the west coast, where she on July 29 sang at the Columbian exposition in Portland; Prof. Kempe has been doing good work for Augustana in the three cities.

Piano Instruction.

Madame Anna Noack, a sister of Prof. Oelschlaegel, a most excellent pianist, will give instruction upon the piano during the coming school year. She, together with other members of the conservatory faculty, are planning to give high class recitals in the three cities during the coming fall.

Among the new teachers for next year are J. P. Magnusson, of Cornell university, who will assume the chair in physics and chemistry, and A. William Pierson, a graduate of Ann Arbor, who will take charge of Dr. Udden's subjects during the fall term.

Prof. Christian Oelschlaegel, who is giving well attended violin recitals in Kansas and Nebraska will be ready to take up his work at teacher of the violin, as leader of the oratorio chorus and of the orchestra on Sept. 5. The collegians look forward to having an excellent oratorio chorus during this year when they celebrate the 25th anniversary of the beginning of oratorio work at Augustana college.

Where Some Have Been.

Several of the teachers have spent their vacation right at home in Rock Island; among them are: Dr. C. W. Foss, Dr. E. F. Bartholomew, Dr. N. Forsander, Dr. C. O. Granere, Prof. J. G. Mauritzon, Prof. J. G. Dalilberg, Prof. L. W. Kling, Prof. F. E. Peterson, Prof. Grafstrom, Prof. C. L. Krantz, Prof. A. W. Kjellstrand, Dr. C. A. Blomgren and Miss Gertrude Don.
